No Seed, No Surplus!

You may have never worked in a garden in your life. But you're planting seeds, whether you realize it or not. In fact, some of what's happening in your life today - for better and for worse - is the harvest of some seeds you planted years ago. And, as the Bible makes crystal clear, "A man reaps what he sows" (Galatians 6:7).

One of the Bible's great planting promises is in Psalm 126:6, "He who goes out with weeping, carrying seed to sow, will return with songs of joy, carrying sheaves with him." There are things you really hope and pray will happen in the lives of people that you love, in your life's work, or in your personal world. Your job isn't the harvest - God does that part. Your job is to keep faithfully sowing the kind of seed that can bring about the results you so passionately want. And, like Grandma's daffodils, the legacy of your life will go on blooming and beautifying people's lives long after you're gone.

And you have to keep that long view to keep from becoming discouraged with the short-term results. Seed planted in the ground appears to be doing absolutely nothing for a while. Seed planted in people's lives is often the same way. The danger is that we'll keep digging up the seed to see if anything's happening - and, in so doing, we'll doom the very harvest we're hoping for. That "digging up the seed" is things like nagging, panicking, giving up, turning hard, or turning bitter. So many have given up on the garden they've planted just before it was about to bloom. That's what God is trying to head off when He says in Galatians 6:9, "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up."

Maybe you've lost the long view recently. You're seeing tasks you have to do instead of lives at stake. You've been settling for making a living when you're here to make a difference! Maybe you've been neglecting your spiritual garden - the sowing you need to be doing in the life of your husband or wife, your children, your coworkers, your students, people God has given you to influence. It's time to remove the zoom lens that's focused on just what's happening today and replace it with God's wide-angle lens that shows you the big picture...the legacy of your life when you live it righteously. That's the big picture. Don't sow seeds of bitterness, cynicism, criticism, or of negativity. Life's too short for that.

Sow the seeds of God's unconditional love, of God's dependable promises - Jesus-seed. The harvest will come - some while you're here, some after you're gone. But think legacy, so the seed sown by your life will still be blooming and beautifying long after you're gone! (Ron Hutchcraft, "A Word With You" April 23, 2010).

Radiant remember our seeds sown are for future fruit grown. Realize no seed, no surplus.

Be Radiant.

From the Desk of the First Lady

RLWC Women of Wisdom 3rd Annual Spring Tea was absolutely wonderful! This year the tea was held at the E. Pat Larkins Center in Pompano. The room was filled with about 225 beautiful women. The 30 tables were beautifully decorated by Radiant women and it was amazing. The atmosphere was filled with love and laughter. There was plenty of food and great desserts.

This year the theme was, "The Bridegroom Cometh" taken from Matthew 25. We had a beautiful, thought driven skit that was written and directed by Sis. Tracy Haynie. Sis. Tracy and her cast reenacted the parable of the ten (10) virgins (Matthew 25). The skit closed out with, "Will you be ready when Jesus comes"? What a powerful move of God as we sat in His presence and examined our lives. I want to thank the W.O.W board and the hostesses for their labor of love as we advance the Kingdom of God. Again thank you. ~ Lady Pelt

RAD Debutant 2010

Radiant Living Worship Center proudly recognizes Miss Jabberwock 2010, Debutant Imani Arleana Pelt. Imani was crowned Miss Jabberwock 2010 on Saturday, April 3, 2010 at the Jabberwock Cotillion, "Visions of Loveliness". The Cotillion was held at the Marriott Heron Bay Resort Hotel in Coral Springs by the Pompano Beach Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

The Jabberwock Cotillion sponsored by the Pompano Beach Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. is an annual event that recognizes teenage girls in grades 11th and 12th who have successfully completed the Debutant program. Through the program, participants learn the value of community service, etiquette, conflict resolution, the arts and a myriad of other meaningful and relevant topics for finer womanhood. This seven month long program ends with the cotillion which is a formal introduction of the young ladies to society.

Imani is a junior at Pompano Beach High School where she is a member of the National Honor Society, cheerleading squad, and Junior ROTC. She currently has over 350 hours of community service. Imani is an active member of Radiant Living Worship Center where she serves in many of the church ministries. Imani is an instructor for our Children's Church, an active member of the Daughter's of Eve dance ministry, a member of the media ministry, an active member of Ray of Sound, and an active member of Radgirls. Imani is the daughter of Pastor Anthony Pelt and Lady Millicent Pelt.

The Women of the Pompano Beach Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. and Radiant Living Worship Center is very proud of Imani Pelt and is praying for her continued success. Imani, may God Bless you and keep up the good work!!!!

Annual Street Service May 15th & 16th

We will be having our annual street service May 15 -16, 2010 on the southwest corner of Hillsboro and 1st Terrace, next to the Food Bazaar Grocery Store. The annual street service is an evangelism tool that Radiant has used since it's inception as a time to minister to our community and spread the gospel, (Matthew 16: 18-20).

This year we will have two days of activities during the street service. On Saturday, we will have a yard sale and dinner sale in which all proceeds will go to the building fund. We will have music and prayer booths along with a prayer service. On Sunday, we will have two worship services under the tent 10:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. Please come out and join us. We need volunteers for the following jobs:

Men to help with parking

Set-up the tent with chairs

Clean-up lot for set-up
